

A congressional study conducted in New Mexico, allowing full reimbursement for all services performed by chiropractic physicians, resulted in

$14 million in savings over a two year period

Source: Stason W, et al. Report to Congress, 2009

CHIROPRACTIC SAVES MONEY

Chiropractic Physicians in New Mexico are skilled in the most conservative treatment methods to alleviate pain and urge patients, when appropriate, to exhaust options before resulting to riskier and more invasive treatments such as drugs and surgery. Currently the New Mexico Medicaid program does not cover treatment from a Chiropractic Physician.